CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Memorandum of Conversation

DATE: 19 September 1960

SUBJECT : Separation Compensation

PARTICIPANTS: House Committee on Appropriations: Samuel W. Crosby, Staff Member
Central Intelligence Agency: L. K. White, Deputy Director (Support)

COPIES TO : DCI, DDCI, IG, DD/S, D/PERS and LEG COUN

1. Pursuant to our discussion at the Deputies' Meeting on Friday, 16 September, I telephoned Sam Crosby on Monday, 19 September, to advise him that the Director proposed to telephone Chairman Cannon in Missouri to discuss our separation compensation plan. I explained that the plan was very important to the Agency and that the Director was perfectly willing to send someone to Missouri to see Mr. Cannon and to have him (Crosby) go along if Mr. Cannon desired such a meeting. I also said that my purpose in calling was to offer to give him a more extensive briefing if he so desired and to make sure he knew that the Director intended to telephone Mr. Cannon. He was very friendly but immediately tried to dissuade us from telephoning Mr. Cannon, stating that he had personally briefed him on the plan at which time Mr. Cannon, at the very outset and without studying it, had said, "I am against it, I am against it."

2. Mr. Crosby informed me that he had talked with representatives of the General Accounting Office and with Bob Smart of the Armed Services Committee Staff and was aware of the fact that we were being held up only because Mr. Cannon had not given his approval. It was his feeling that Mr. Cannon would not give his approval to the plan without having the Subcommittee consider it and that, of course, there was no possibility of accomplishing this prior to January, 1961. Nevertheless, he emphasized that the Director could proceed as he wished and that the Staff certainly did not want to interfere. It was my impression, however, that he sincerely felt that we might do more to hurt our case than help it if we attempted to push it through before Mr. Cannon could have it considered by the full Subcommittee. I told him that I would pass this along to the Director and would call him again if the Director still planned to contact Mr. Cannon in Missouri.

Signed

L. K. White
 Deputy Director
